ORDER REVOKING CPG

I. INTRODUCTION

On November 8, 2000, the Vermont Public Service Board ("Board") granted Global Crossing North American Networks, Inc. ("the Company"), a Certificate of Public Good under Docket No. 6438, to provide telecommunications services in Vermont. On January 21, 2011, the Company filed a letter with the Board stating that it had completed a merger with Global Crossing Telecommunications, Inc., on December 31, 2010. Consequently, it stated, it wished to relinquish its authority to offer telecommunications services in Vermont.

On February 9, 2011, the Vermont Department of Public Service ("DPS") filed a letter with the Board stating that there are no pending complaints against the Company and that it has no objection to the Company's request for revocation of its Certificate of Public Good.

The Board finds the reasons articulated by the Company in support of its request to be convincing. This finding, together with the fact that no opposition to the Company's filing has been registered with the Board and no party has requested a hearing, leads us to conclude that the Company's CPG should be revoked without a hearing.
